SLOW GAME AT DE PAUW

VINCENNES UNIVERSITY IS BEATEN BY THE SCORE OF 30 TO O.

Notre Dame in Secret Practice for Two Big Games-Earlham Gets a

Purdue Star for Coach.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 4 .- De Pauw University won from Vincennes University this afternoon, with the score 30 to 0. The game was a clean one, but two Vincennes men were laid out by accidental blows on the head. De Pauw lent them Pearson, her crack tackle, to substitute for one of the injured men. The teams were well matched in regard to weight, but De Pauw had more skill, although both teams played slow ball. Captain Gregory, "Sunny" Mc-Coy and McKinstry made long runs for De Pauw and scored touchdowns. Line-up: Positions. Vincennes. De Pauw.

Notre Dame in Secret Practice for Purdue and Indiana Games.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 4.-Notre Dame's foot-ball team went into secret practice to-day for the Purdue game, and surrounds Carter Field, it is evident that some big surprises are in store for some followers of the game, and more especially honors in the State. There are whispers of new formations which O'Dea has kept row with Lake Forest, though of little importance in itself, will be watched with interest by Notre Dame's supporters. Promising new candidates are enlisting in the ranks of the scrubs every day and O'Dea probably will have three or four teams working this week. Preparations now under way for the big games with Purdue and Indiana, to be played here on the 9th and 16th, are expected to make these two in the football history of the university. Great enthusiasm has been aroused among the students and each hall will turn out an organized band of rooters to cheer the gold and blue on to victory. A call has been made for new yells and songs and the rooters' chorus will begin rehearsing to-

Professional Football Game.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 4.-The biggest football game of the Middle West is scheduled for Wednesday, when the allstar elevens of the South Bend Athletic Association and Detroit Athletic Club will meet in a contest for the athletic club championship of the country. Both teams have a great record, only two points having been scored on South Bend and only five on Detroit this year. Great preparations that State, of Gerrald Bass, alias Squint are being made for the contest and a large crowd will witness the game.

Earlham Has a New Coach.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 4.-Although Earlham has suffered defeat with great Jacob Barxter, of 1507 Harlan street, made regularity this year, the athletic management feels that it has been extremely fortunate in securing the services of E. C. Robertson to train the football team the rest of the season. Mr. Robertson was a former played on the team of Purdue University, from which school he was graduated last year, and was popularly known for four years as one of the best players in the State. He captained the Purdue team for two years, playing the position of half back. He was chosen last year on the All-Indiana team, and has received much notice as a punter and place kicker.

Indiana Notes.

WINCHESTER .- Quite a number of important criminal cases have been set for next week. One of the most important, be- | diana. cause of the prominence of the persons concerned, is that of the State vs. Isaac Thomas, a wealthy farmer of the southeast part of the county, who is charged with attempting to bribe Thomas H. Clark, one of the county commissioners, and to thus influence him to appoint certain viewers, whom Thomas would name, on a public ditch in which he was interested. SCOTTSBURG.-While working on his farm among the knobs of the western part of this county, Monday morning, Joseph Howell saw an eagle sitting in a tree near by. He sent his son for his shotgun and shot it. The shot were not heavy enough to kill the bird, but crippled it so it was unable to fly away, and he finished it with a club. It was six feet and eleven inches from tip to tip and thirty-seven inches from its beak to the point of its tail. It weighed nine pounds and one ounce and had claws more than two inches long. Governor Durbin received yesterday a letter from Governor Bliss, of Michigan, asking him to join with other States that have claims against the government similar to that of Indiana on account of money advanced to equip troops in the civil war. The proposition is for all States having such claims to join their issues in a strong effort to secure an allowance of the claims. The Governor was not prepared yesterday to state what his reply to Governor Bliss will be.

Shiloh Monument Commission. The Shiloh monument commission met yesterday afternoon and made further examination of the samples of monuments submitted to it some time ago. The commission came to a decision as to one hundred samples, rejecting them and leaving only twenty yet to be examined. The dimensions of the proposed monuments were also taken. No meeting of the commission will be held again before next week.

Fight Against the Police Dispatch Company and Other Matters-

The Barbers' Union.

The special meeting of Central Labor Union held in the Machinists' Hall last night again took up the fight against the Indianapolis Police Dispatch Company. men. The committee from the American John W. Kerr, who moved at the last meeting of the central body that a committee the conditions of three weeks past are un- be appointed to co-operate with the Merchant police force in protesting against the new company putting up its boxes and stringing wires said that the committee did not know what it was to do and asked for instructions. This brought several delegates to their feet, who declared that the committee should know, as the matter had been threshed out several times and the Central Labor Union had declared that the most aggressive steps should be taken against the new company.

Later in the discussion Kerr really defended the company, as did the other members of the committee appointed with him. The discussion ended when Edgar A. Perping his students, Grover Cregmile, Ezra kins moved to have the committee discharged. This action was taken. President Feltman and Secretary Slough, who were formerly appointed a committee to visit the Board of Safety and not request, but demand that the board refuse to grant police power to employes of the company under its proposed system, will continue the work. President Feltman said that he and Slough still constituted the committee and that it would carry out the dictates of the central

H. S. Beissenherz, of the grievance committee, reported the settlement of the difference between the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and the own-Ketcham iron works, and said that there were prospects of a settlement with the Hetherington-Berner Company.

Regarding the conditions of the Suspender Workers' Union, he said the members of the company employing the workers had told the committee that they had no objection to the girls belonging to the union and Yesterday's work in the county treasur- had sent for 5,000 union labels for their goods. The committee recommended that an officer of Central Labor Union meet with the suspender workers and teach them how to conduct their meetings. Concerning a letter from the national secretary of the Garment Makers' Union, which named and charged several firms of this city of handing goods made by an Eastern firm that is on the unfair list, Beissenherz said the committee investigated and found the charges to be false. He requested that the secretary of the central body be instructed to write the national secretary of the Garment Makers that he should be more careful in making charges and not put the Central Labor Union to the bother and expense of investigating them. The request was granted. Organizer John Blue reported that employes of the Bates hominy mills had told him that seven men were discharged for joining a union that was being organized in the plant. The matter was turned over to the grievance committee for investigation. The Typographical Union asked that the secretary of the Central Labor Union write to Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, protesting against the appointment of John H. Baker, judge of the United States District Court, to succeed the late Judge William A. Woods, of the United States Circuit Court. The request was granted. UNION NOW IN GOOD STANDING.
